Officer comments

Photographs taken from numbers 28 and 30 Lineholt Close where representations have been received in objection to the application are included as additional information to that contained within pages 27 to 36 of the presentations pack in order to assist members.

The photographs include images taken from inside those respective properties and from rear gardens. The photographs will be available to view within the officers presentation at the Committee meeting. Members who are limited to audio access to the virtual meeting should familiarise themselves with the images in advance of the meeting. Officers will of course be able to assist members with any questions regarding the photographs at the Committee meeting should they arise.
